Buonaparte

By WILLIAM WORDSWORTH.

The portrait, autograph and biographical eketch of this author have aiready appeared in this series,

I grieved for Buonaparte, with a vain And an unthinking grief! for, who aspires
To genuine greatness but from just desires,
And knowledge such as he could never gain?
Tis not in battles that from youth we train
The governor who must be wise and good.
And temper with the sternness of the brain
Thoughts potherly and most be a many trainers. Thoughts motherly and meek as womanhood. Wisdom doth live with children round her knees. Books, leisure, perfect freedom, and the talk
Man holds with week-day man in the hourly walk
Of the mind's business: these are the degrees
By which true sway doth mount; this is the stalk True power doth grow on; and her rights are these

Meeting To-Morrow.

The men's meetings conducted by the Central Young Men's Christian Association are proving of more than ordinary interest. The illustrated song service, in which fine views and hymns are thrown upon the screen by use of a powerful stereopticon, are very attractive. To-morrow afternoon Rev. W. L. Ball, pastor of the West View Baptist Church will speak on "The Liberator." The service begins at 3:30 o'clock. The meeting will be held in the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium. Miss Mabel Diggs will sing and Miss Reed, the harpist, will play.

The Boys' Sunday Afternoon Club will meet at 2:15 in the big hall of the Y. M. C. A. Building. Mr. Thomas Farley, of the Western Union Telegraph Company, will speak, his theme being "Who Will Win the Race?" All boys between ten and sixteen years of age are invited.

The younger young men's meeting will be held at 2:35 in the boys' rooms. Mr. Samuei K. Philips, of Richmond College, will speak.
